

Janet Morse – tour planner and volunteer recruiter for OEP and Taiken Gakuen Institute study tours

Janet was Program Manager for Pacific Islands Institute, a Hawai`i based supplier for Elderhostel, where she developed and managed educational travel programs focused on Hawaiian culture, history and environment.

Prior to her work with PII, she was Executive Director for Hawaii Literacy, Inc. and served as chief administrator of this volunteer literacy agency with both adult and family literacy programs. She received an award from AIM for Excellence, presented by Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Foundation for excellence in volunteer management

Janet is active with the American Association of University Women and is currently Hawaii-Pacific Division Co-President. She has served on the YWCA Board of Directors; The Hawaii Legal Auxiliary, Governor's Council for Literacy, and Hawaii Women Work.

Janet received her BA in Sociology from Beloit College, Beloit, Wisconsin.