

M. Jan Rumi, M.S.

M. Jan Rumi is Vice-President of Travel & Learn. He currently co-owns and serves as the president of a management consulting business and social services business in Hawai`i.

He served as the senior manager and practice leader of Grant Thornton's business advisory services practice in Honolulu. He also served as the head of the Minority Business Development Center while serving at Grant Thornton LLP. He has over 25 years of diverse business advisory, Management consulting and industry experience focusing on project management, quality assurance, information technology and operational improvement services.

Jan is the Honorary Consul of Morocco, State of Hawaii and strives to connect Moroccan government and businesses with Hawaii-based businesses and government leaders. He also wishes to use Hawai`i as a gateway to connect Morocco with the continental USA as well as to the Pacific Basin countries.

Among his many other professional, trade organization and civic activities, he is an active member of the Honolulu Japanese Chamber of Commerce, Hawaii Chamber of Commerce, Kahala Rotary Club and Hawai`i Lions Club and Lions Club of Honolulu. He is a current member of the Hawai`i Society of CPAs.

His education includes a Bachelor of Arts (BA) from Berea College, Kentucky, Master of Science from Purdue University, Indiana in computer sciences with a minor in business.

Jan is married and has two sons.